Eligibility: All artists, at least 16 years of age, residing in U.S. are eligible. Artists under the age of 18 must have a parent or guardian include their signature for terms of exhibition. All original hand-made artwork are eligible. No computer generated, or digitally altered prints will be accepted. All work should have been completed in the last 5 years and may be no larger than 48 inches in height and 60 inches in length.

2015 Guest Juror: Ken General is an international art curator/gallerist based in Houston, TX. He is a 2007 graduate of the Henry Radford Hope School of Fine Arts from Indiana University, General holds a BFA in Printmaking and a BA in Art History. Before moving to Houston, Texas the curator/director served as Vice-President of Indiana University's Fine Art Student Association, gallery assistant for a contemporary Chicago art gallery-The Spurious Fugitive, and interned as an assistant for the Midwest Museum of American Art. General was a mixed media artist whose artwork can be found in multiple private and public art collections around the world, including several pieces in the Indiana University permanent collection, The Hungarian Multicultural Center in Budapest, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Art Museum.

On an art creation hiatus, General now focuses his energy on helping others achieve their artistic goals. He served most recently for three years as director of a contemporary art gallery in Houston, Texas and Santa Fe, NM until establishing The Duende Art Project in the summer of 2014 combining his passions to champion meaningful art and community betterment. General serves on the board of directors for the PrintHouston festival and a member of the Museum of Fine Arts Houston- Print+Paper patron committee. General's gallery, Duende Art Project, will be 1 of 12 American art galleries selected for the 2015 South Korean International Art Fair this summer.

Awards: Between the days of April 28th and May 2nd, the public will be able to vote for "Best in Show" via Facebook likes, and in-person ballots during the exhibition reception. On May 2nd, 5pm eastern time votes will be tallied and prizes will be awarded shortly afterwards.
